THE HONEYMOON
Tisn't likely that husband will feed wife actually all their lives, however fond he is on the wedding trip. Likely enough, however, he will pay for the feeding as long as life shall last—he should. Strict vegetarians read no further. Everything in the meat line that's considered first-class found every week-day in this first-class meat store. Lots of husbands and wives to prove it. They don't believe they're overcharged, either.

Wellington Improved Egg Food is different than other foods. It is not a stimulant but a genuine food tonic which builds up the system of the fowls, helps them digest their regular feed and get more good out of it. It is not a whip that lashes your fowls to extra exertion at the expense of their health, but a constant and gentle every day help that does permanent good.
Costs about 1 cent a day for 24 hens.
FOR SALE AT GROCERS, FEED STORES, and general supply houses, but if you cannot get it at your dealers send us his name and address and 25 cents and we will send you, prepaid, a package that will last a dozen hens 6 weeks and our book on feeding.
Send for our Book on Feeding, anyway. Free upon request.

"So you are really in society?" said the friend of earlier years.

"I wouldn't say for sure," answered Mr. Gumrox, "Nobody has ever approached me with any proposition to write up my past unless I paid to stop 'em."

New Boarder—Look here! Why can't I have a full cup of tea?

Waiter Girl—That was a full cup when I took out of the kitchen, but, you see, this here tea is so weak it just lays down in the bottom of the cup.

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon.

Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a sick man's friend," writes Geo. N. Turner, Esq., (Ex. Financial Secretary International Brotherhood of Teamsters), 2208 California Street, Denver, Colo. "For the past seven years my health gradually failed. I lost my appetite, became nervous and debilitated, very despondent and unable to sleep. No medicine helped me until I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It put new life into my veins and increased vitality until I could once more enjoy life and attend to my business. Eight bottles affected a complete cure and gladly do I recommend it."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets—only one or two a day will regulate and cleanse and invigorate a foul, bad Stomach, torpid Liver, or sluggish Bowels.

Sympathetic Ointment.

An old time quack compounded his "sympathetic ointment" according to the following prescription: "Take mosse of a ded man's hed, two onc.; man's greace, one onc.; mummia, man's blood, of each half an onc.; linseed oyle, twenty-two onc.; oyle of roses, bolearminick, of each an onc. Bet them together in a mortar till it be fine leeke an oyntment; keep it in a box." Then all the sick person needed was the weapon with which a man had been stricken. This he anointed with the ointment, pressed to the wound and was well again, or should have been.

Her Position Defined.

"Are you opposed to marriage?" he asked.

"No," replied the lady who had received degrees from three colleges, "I do not object to marriage per se. It is merely the fact that one cannot get married without having a husband that one dislikes."—Chicago Record-Herald.

FRUIT CANNING
Becomes a pleasure when you use the
ECONOMY JAR
We consider it the best jar made.
WHY?
1. Made of white flint glass.
2. With a wide smooth mouth that your hand can easily slip into.
3. No rubber to adjust; the sealing is done by means of a pure composition fixed to the cover.
4. The cover is coated with a lacquer that is as impervious to fruit acid as the glass itself.
5. The absence of contact with any rubber prevents tainting the fruit with unpleasant flavors.
6. There are no hidden corners and spaces in the cover to gather and cultivate disease germs.
7. Every jar is sure to seal. Fruit never mould; will pay for itself in the fruit it will save.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company will spend $100,000 during the coming year in advertising the Coast counties of the State. Good results are expected, for this section of the State has never been advertised in the East to any extent. F. H. Mr. Thorpe thought if funds could be subscribed by local men the railroad company would assist, and Redwood City get its full share of advertising.

A Threshing Machine Engine Explodes—Mrs. Dr. J. L. Ross Gives a Green Tea.

WOODSIDE, August 18.—The C.M.A. Society of this place will give a dance in Independence Hall Saturday evening, September 2d. It will be a big event. Make no dates for that time but attend the ball. Excellent music has been secured. Admission 50 cents.

Mrs. Andrew Welch, one of the very wealthy ladies of San Francisco, is looking for a desirable location to erect a handsome home here. She is delighted with Woodside, and if necessary arrangements can be made for a site she will shortly begin the erection of a magnificent building. Woodside is rapidly becoming the home of the extremely wealthy class. The high altitude and mild climate together with unexcelled scenery make it the ideal place for summer homes.

Mrs. Dr. J. L. Ross entertained her many friends at a green tea at her summer residence, Woodside Park, on Thursday afternoon. This event was given in honor of Miss Sarah Ross, who departed last Monday for her home in Chicago. The Park fairly echoed with the voices of the many young folks who were fortunate enough to be invited.

Mr. Malm and wife, who have been conducting a boarding house in connection with Williamson's hotel have movek away. Mr. Rosenberg and wife of San Francisce have rented the same. Mr. Rosenberg is a barber and will open the shop recently vacated by Joseph Bettencourt.

Two threshing outfits came this valley during the week and threshed all the grain. The engine on Charles Kreiss's machine exploded and was completely demolished. Fortunately no one was injured.

Herr Clammer, who recently purchased twenty-five acres of land next to the Doyle place, is building a cottage on his new home.

The dance last Saturday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all. It is understood another will be given shortly.

The summer boarders and campers are pulling out for the city, and this place is once more on the quiet.

Mrs. J. A. Folger, with Mr. and Mrs. Le Grand Canon Tibbetts, sailed yesterday from New York for Europe.

Henry Butts and wife of Redwood City were among the prominent visitors to our burg last Sunday.

Henry Hildebrand is erecting a neat barn on his home.

HALFMOON BAY ITEMS.

HALFMOON BAY, August 17—Great excitement was manifest in this town when it was learned this morning that the Halfmoon Bay and San Mateo stage had been held up by a lone highwayman and robbed. Fortunately there was but little in the way of valuables aboard. Dr. Hollister, Wells-Fargo agent here, reports that there was absolutely nothing in the Express Company's strong box. Postmaster Nelson says there was no registered mail, and Henry Levy has given out the statement that there were only some orders for goods in the Levy treasure box. The passengers aboard, however, did not get off so easily—that is, if the highwayman held them up as it is reported here. The passengers were Joaquin Santos, a shoemaker of this place; Ollie Olson, traveling salesman for Langley & Michaels, wholesale druggists of San Francisco; Ralph Russen and Anna Johnson, waiters in the Occidental Hotel here. It is said that Santos had quite a snug sum with him. The waiters had just received two weeks' salary. Your correspondent rode out yesterday evening on the front seat with Ed Campbell the stage driver, and Ollie Olson, one of the passengers held up. The conversation turned to the recent hold-up of the Yosemité stage, and Ed. Campbell recalled the attempted hold-up of his stage a few years ago. The genial Mr. Olson said that he had never figured in a hold-up, but that he would like the experience if nobody got hurt. The writer wonders if the entertainment afforded Mr. Olson equaled his expectations. It is pretty generally believed here that the highwaymen expected to intercept some of the Bank of Halfmoon Bay's money. If that was his intention he was disappointed, as there was no bank money on the stage.

Jay C. Powers & Co. of this place have just made a sale of the Antone Silveira Cardoza ranch, consisting of twenty acres, the buyers being W. D. Potter Co., incorporated, of San Francisco. The land lies directly between the town and the beach and will be subdivided at once into lots and sold. The W. D. Potter Co. have made Jay C. Powers & Co. their Halfmoon Bay agents, and the latter company will make the subdivision and sell the lots.

MRS. MILLER'S BEQUESTS.

Will of Late Wife of Henry Miller, Cattle King, Filed for Probate.

The will of the late Sarah Wilmot Miller, wife of Henry Miller, president of the cattle dealing firm of Miller & Lux, has been filed for probate in San Francisco. The will makes bequests to relatives and public institutions to the amount of $64,000. It was made June 25, 1875.

An odd feature of the will is that in it Charles Lux, Joseph Sedgley and Edwin B. Mastick are named as executors and that all of them died before the testator, whose death occurred July 31, 1905. Since the time of making the will the money on deposit in savings banks and the property in Rhode Island and San Mateo has increased considerably and the accrued interest will more than cover the expense of distributing the estate.

Two sums of $10,000 each are placed in trust for the children of Alzada N. Place and Annie Sibley Robinson, sisters of Mrs. Miller. Alzade Place receives a house and lot in Rhode Island. To a brother, Stephen White Sheldon, $10,000 is bequeathed; to an aunt, Phoebe Sheldon Searle, is left $5,000, and $5,000 to her son. Melissa Amelia Potter is given $5,000, Martha Ann Sheldon $2,000, and to Eleanor Francis Wade $2,000. The Protestant Orphan Asylum, Little Sisters' Infant Shelter and Ladies' Protection and Relief Society each receive $5,000.

NEW BOULEVARD PROPOSED

Grand Drive Planned Between the Metropolis and South City.

What promises to be one of the most attractive boulevards in this part of the State is being planned by public-spirited citizens of San Francisco and San Mateo counties. It is the intention of those who are working on this boulevard to obtain $100 subscription from 350 contributors, making a total of $35,000. That the proposed roadway is an assured fact there can be no doubt, as nearly one-half of the amount has already been subscribed.

The boulevard as planned is to be a continuation of Nineteenth avenue and crossing the county line near Lake Merced, will give an attractive view of the lake, the Pacific Ocean, and the surrounding country. The road will continue in a straight southerly course until opposite the town of Colma, when it will turn eastward to San Bruno avenue at South San Francisco. The roadway will be intended for all pleasure vehicles, heavy teaming only being prohibited.

"MENLO PARK."

The following article appeared in last Monday's issue of the Argonaut:

SAN FRANCISCO, August 9, 1905.

Editors Argonaut: I regret that lack of time prevents my handling the subject of "Menlo Park" more at length and more at leisure, but I take pleasure in complying with your request for an article, and submit the following:

Menlo Park, as is well known, has long been sought for its balmy and healthful atmosphere. It occupies the happy mean—just far enough inland to avoid the harsher features of the coast climate, and just near enough the coast to avoid oppressive suns and more debilitating winds of the interior; and one of the best tributes to the happy climatic conditions of this region is the fact that people of refined tastes, with wealth and leisure to permit themselves to select for homes the choicest parts of any land, have so many of them made their permanent homes at Menlo Park. Here are the most beautiful country homes on the Pacific coast, and hundreds of tourists who yearly visit this section pronounce them "the finest in America," not even excepting those of the Hudson river, north of New York City, or even the Vanderbilt place in North Carolina.

It is probably true that "Linden Towers," the country home of James L. Flood, is the most beautiful country home in America, and this is, in artistic effect, admirably supplemented by those of the late Senator Stanford, Timothy Hopkins, Hon. Charles N. Felton, Hon. John T. Doyle, Joseph Donohoe, E. W. Hopkins, Hugh D. Keil, Edgar Mills, W. J. Adams, B. A. Barney, Col. E. E. Eyre and numerous others.

Prior to the founding of the Stanford University, the corner-stone of which was laid in 1887, Menlo Park was regarded as a sort of reserved ground for those only who were very wealthy; but dating from that event, such acreage as from time to time became purchasable was and still is eagerly sought for by those of moderate means, and a series of new homes, developed with a high standard of taste and ranging in value from fifteen thousand dollars upward, have sprung up in every direction. Among the most prominent of these newer homes are those of J. Leroy Nickel, S. E. Slade, Charles W. Callaghan, Joseph B. Coryell, Christian W. Smith, Howard G. Stevenson, Frank Moulton, Mrs. Winchester, E. L. Eyre, Perry Eyre, J. Henry Meyer, Captain Frederick Bolles, A. J. Marcus, Richard Stephenson, George A. Batchelder, A. C. Bassett, A. L. McKendry, E. Black Ryan, Augustus Taylor, William Taylor, William Frank and Christian Reis. These are mentioned as accumulated evidence of a steady and prosperous growth.

Reached by an all-rail route, with improved traveling facilities offered in the near future by the Southern Pacific Company, now rapidly constructing the "Bay Shore cut-off," and electric service promised and in prospect, it is not reasonable to suppose that Menlo Park will be less attractive in the future than it has been in the past. The reader with notions of a country home at Menlo Park can draw his own conclusions as to whether the present or the future will be the better time to secure a holding.

Very sincerely yours,
EDGAR C. HUMPHREY.

NEW SUPERVISOR.

Carl J. Coburn of Pescadero Secures the Coveted Appointment.

Governor Pardee has appointed Carl J. Coburn Supervisor of the Fifth township to succeed Doctor McCracken, who resigned to accept the Tax Collectorship. Mr. Coburn is a very popular young man who has served his township well as Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Coburn made a vigorous campaign for the office of Supervisor, having the backing of the County Committee and many influential men of the Republican party of the county. The appointment meets with general approval. Mr. Coburn will be able to take his seat on the board next Monday, having already filed his bond.

WILL RAISE SMOKE STACK.

Gas Company Have Taken Steps to Abate Smoke Nuisance.

At the last meeting of the City Council a communication was read from W. H. Kinne, in which the writer complained of damage done to his hotel property by smoke from the gas works. After the hearing of sworn testimony by Street Superintendent Dickey and Councilman Walker the council, on motion of Luscher, decided that the smoke was a nuisance and Clerk Stafford was directed to notify the gas company of the board's action. The gas company has already taken steps to abate the smoke nuisance and will have stacks of sufficient height erected to carry the smoke away from the adjoining buildings.

The board also considered the purchase of a steam roller for street work. Two offers were received to supply the proper kind of machine, one from the Iroquois Iron Works and the other from Henshaw, Buckley & Co. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to accept the offer of the latter firm for a ten-ton roller to cost $2650. This machine has been in use at Pasadena for some time but was found to be too heavy and the price quoted to the board is a discount of $1200 on the regular figure.

The California Automobile Club sent a communication to the board calling attention to the frequent violations of the automobile law and recommending that all violators of the speed-limit be prosecuted. The club offered to assist in such prosecution.

The board authorized the payment of $10,528 to Clark & Henery, this being in partial payment for the street work already completed.

Plans and specifications for the macadamizing of Mound, First and Washington streets were presented by Engineer Gilbert, and the Clerk was directed to publish a call for bids according to the specifications.

SANGER PULLMAN DEAD.

Fatal Result of Injuries Caused by Runaway at San Mateo.

Walter Sanger Pullman passed away at his home in Belmont Tuesday evening after lingering two days in an unconscious condition, the result of injuries received in a runaway accident at San Mateo on Sunday.

While Mr. Pullman and a friend were driving through San Mateo Sunday evening, the horse became unmanageable and both men were thrown from the buggy. Pullman being rendered senseless by the fall.

He was taken to the Union Hotel in San Mateo and later removed to his home in Belmont. Every possible medical assistance was given, but as the patient had sustained a severe fracture of the skull, little hope was entertained from the first for his recovery, and death came Tuesday evening.

Sanger Pullman was a son of the late George M. Pullman, the late millionaire car-builder of Chicago. Sanger and his brother George M., who recently died at San Mateo, were shut off by their father's will from the control of their share of the $10,000,000 estate, and were left instead a sum in trust that netted each an income of $250 per month. Sanger Pullman wedded Louise Lander West, a San Francisco school teacher whose beauty had won for her a national reputation.

The funeral took place Friday from the home in Belmont. The body was taken to Cypress Lawn Cemetery and deposited in a vault alongside of the remains of the deceased's brother.

BOLD HIGHWAYMAN AT WORK

Bandit Halts Halfmoon Bay Stage and Collects Booty.

Opens the Mail Bag, Fires Three Shots at an Intruder, and Makes His Escape.

A lone highwayman—a very short, thick-set fellow, weighing 180 pounds, dressed in a long black overcoat, blue overalls and wearing a black, tight-fitting cap and a black mask, held up the San Mateo-Half Moon Bay stage three miles from San Mateo Thursday morning, compelled the driver at the point of a pistol to hand over the strong box and the mail bag, gathered up a few voluntary contributions from the passengers, took three shots at a teamster who happened to be passing that way, and then cooly commanding the driver to pass on, slipped into the chaparral by the wayside and with the mail pouch under his arm disappeared into the tall uncut.

The scene of this remarkably bold performance is near Chrystal Springs dam, where vehicles may be met at almost any turn of the road to the coast, and almost within the fashionable environments of San Mateo, where the homes of the rich dot the foothills.

Yet, single-handed, the highwayman went through his deliberations with no more apparent effort than if they had been a part of his everyday routine.

But he was no gentleman, this robber bold, for he persisted in swearing in the presence of the lady passenger, and once in particular he let loose a stream of oaths so virulent that whatever spirit of resistance was left in driver Campbell was instantly dispelled.

Near the Spring Valley dam the road leads through a lonely canyon, and here it was that the robber, his face hidden behind a black handkerchief, appeared in the center of the road and gave the command to stop.

With a big revolver staring him in the face to enforce the ultimatum, driver Ed Campbell did not care to parley about the terms. He quickly brought the team to a halt and waited for developments.

The man behind the mask immediately demanded the unconditonal surrender of the strong boxes and the mail bag. Campbell threw out the boxes, but hesitated about the mail pouch.

"Throw out the bag or I'll riddle you full of holes!" exclaimed the robber with an oath.

Campbell, not seeing how he could effectively argue the point threw out the bag.

The man behind the mask then commanded C. J. Santos of Half Moon Bay, one of the passengers, to pass the hat. Santos, being more familiar with the Spanish language than with the English, did not comprehend at first, and there was a slight hitch in the performance, but gradually his duty dawned upon him, and he obeyed.

Dropping a dollar into the hat—all he had save ten cents—Santos, who was seated on the seat beside the driver, passed the hat into the coach to collect from the other passengers. Miss Annie Johnson contributed 35 cents and the others fumbled in their pockets for more substantial contributions.

Just at this point a wagon was heard approaching from the San Mateo side and the robber coolly commanded the driver to drive on. Campbell obeyed with alacrity.

The wagon which disturbed the operations and deprived the robber of his booty was driven by E. Bartilotti, an Italian gardener. The highwayman, nettled no doubt by the loss of the dollar thirty-five, leveled his revolver at the unfortunate intruder and fired. The bullet, however, missed its mark, and the driver of the team, realizing that his presence was not desired in that vicinity at that particular moment, jumped from his seat and ran down the hill. With a couple of farewell shots at the fleeing man the robber returned to the strong boxes and the mail bag, which he had left lying by the roadside.

With remarkable audacity he broke the locks of the strong boxes by firing his revolver into them and without leaving the roadside. Then ripping the mailsack open with a knife he gathered up his booty and disappeared.

As soon as the stage had reached San Mateo, the alarm was given and within a short time Sheriff Mansfield arrived from Redwood City and with a well-organized posse was using every means to head off the highwayman.

Sheriff Mansfield gives it as his opinion that the robber is an amateur who was inspired by the recent Yosemite hold-up. Very little money is ever carried on the stage line, but considerable sums are supposed to have gone over to stock the new bank at Half Moon Bay, and he may have expected to land some of this.

It is now agreed by medical experts that yellow fever is not a filth disease but that is communicated by the sting of a certain kind of mosquito, which innoculates one person with the virus of another.
